Memorandum

TO : SAC, WFO

DATE: 6/5/68

FROM : SA ARNOLD L. PARHAM

SUBJECT: ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF SENATOR
ROBERT F. KENNEDY, LOS ANGELES, CALIF.
6/4/68

At 1:50 p.m., 6/5/68 Seminarian ~~JAMES BECKER~~
1600 Webster Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., telephone 526-1221, advised that he heard over the radio that the party in Los Angeles, Calif. who attempted to assassinate
Senator KENNEDY was an individual by the name of SUERON SUERON.

As a result of the above being an unusual name
Seminarian BECKER said he originally came from Joliet, Ill. and that a family by that name lived in Joliet, Ill. and it ~~his~~ opinion they still live there. He said the family he knew the father was a dentist and that he had a son that ~~would~~ be about the same age as the individual described being held by the Los Angeles authorities.

TO : SAC, WFO (173-135)

DATE: 6/5/68

FROM : SA HILMER H. KREBS

SUBJECT: SHOOTING OF SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY
ON June 5, 1968

On 6/5/68, Captain Robert Krahling, U.S. Capitol Police advised that on 6/5/68, at about 10:10 AM, a man called to Senator Kennedy's office (Robert F) and told the lady who answered in Kennedy's office that he lived in Southeast Washington, D.C. and that his name is CHARLES MAYHELD (PH) DAVIS. Davis said that Senator Kennedy had helped Davis and other convicts get out of jail and that he, Davis, and others were going to get guns "so sit tight".

The above was listened to by Sergeant Wayland Fallin, U.S. Capitol Police, who believes that Davis' voice sounded like it might that of a Negro.

The above was furnished to the MPD by the US Capitol Police.

The current D.C. telephone directory shows nothing identifiable with Charles Mayheld Davis.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY

Another Government agency which conducts criminal type investigations advised on June 5, 1968, that one Charles Mayhew Davis (phonetic), had called the office of Senator Robert F. Kennedy early on the morning of June 5, 1968.

This individual stated that Senator Kennedy had helped him and other convicts get out of jail and that he, Davis, and other convicts were going to get guns "so all right."

The current edition of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company Directory for the District of Columbia, discloses no listing identifiable with Charles Mayhew Davis.

DATE: 6/5/68

FROM : SA JOHN E. BURNS

SUBJECT: KEN SALT

003-2374

MR. CLAUDE HAINES, 12 W. Custis, Alexandria, Va. advised that he was listening to the news at 4:00am this date. Sandra Vanocur interviewed a girl from Oberlin, Ohio concerning the shooting of Robert F. Kennedy. This girl said on the interview that shortly after the shooting a woman ran by her shouting "We've shot him. We've shot him." When the girl from Oberlin, Ohio asked who was shot, the woman replied, "Kennedy." The girl described the older woman as wearing a polkadotted dress, dark shoes.

Mr. Haines stated he called to advise of this information since he had not seen the replay on T.V. again whereas he had seen replays of all of the other events that took place. He wondered why.

Above written in view of information contained in attached teletype from MPD which was obtained by SA Calvin R. Ford this date.

SUBJECT: REFUGES AND ESCAPEES: Summary of Application for Visa under Section 15 (a) (3) of Public Law 85-316

RE: Department's Circular Instruction No. CA-2927, September 26, 1957.

Name of Applicant	Date of Birth	Place of Birth	Sex
Alias: SIRHAN, Shareef		Jerusalem, Pal.	male PII

Persons accompanying:

Name	Date of Birth	Place of Birth	Relationship to Applicant

Was at school in 1948 when owing to Arab/Israeli conflict fled and took refuge in Jerusalem, Old City where he is still living. Since that time he is unemployed.

Members of family not accompanying:

Name	Date of Birth	Place of Birth	Relationship to Applicant

Circumstances of escape:

Applicant lived in the New City of Jerusalem till 1948 when the Palestine conflict started. As the Jordanian and Israeli troops were fighting each other for the occupation of the City he fled under bombardment and took refuge in the Old City.

Elements of hardship:

Applicant lost his home and belongings in Palestine as a result of the Arab/Israeli conflict. In Jordan he was unable to continue his studies and had to leave his school and look for employment in order to earn his living. But owing to lack of work in Jordan he has been unable to find a decent job and could not therefore resettle in a normal life. His desire is to join his parents, sisters and brothers who immigrated to USA in 1956 under the Refugee Relief Act of 1953.

Elements of persecution:

Applicant fled from the New City of Jerusalem for fear of persecution by the Jews because of race and religion. He cannot return to his home in Israel even if he wanted to and can claim no compensation for what he has lost there.

Although he is not likely to be persecuted in Jordan yet he may not be able to resettle in Jordan and will be dependent of UNRWA's assistance for many years to come.

Effect on welfare of U.S. if applicant admitted:

Mr. Sirhan is a well educated, ambitious young man who can speak enough English to make himself understood. Although he has no proper skill yet he should be able to find some employment in an Office or a Factory with which he could earn his living and become self-supporting.

His parents, brothers and sisters immigrated to USA in 1956 under the Refugee Relief Act of 1953 and are eager to have him join them.

We strongly recommend that this young man be given the chance to join his parents under the present Public Law as otherwise he will have to wait for many many years before his turn on the Israeli quota is reached.

A CWS assurance was provided for him under RRA 1953 but this was received too late to allow the US Consul process the case under that Act.

Submitted by:

Ruth M. Black
World Council of Churches
Beirut-Lebanon.

Oct. 14, 1958.

Observations of consular officer, where appropriate:

Confirmed on October 14, 1958 that Mr. Sirhan is a well educated young man who can speak enough English to make himself understood. Although he has no proper skill yet he should be able to find some employment in an Office or a Factory with which he could earn his living and become self-supporting. His parents, brothers and sisters immigrated to USA in 1956 under the Refugee Relief Act of 1953 and are eager to have him join them. We strongly recommend that this young man be given the chance to join his parents under the present Public Law as otherwise he will have to wait for many many years before his turn on the Israeli quota is reached. A CWS assurance was provided for him under RRA 1953 but this was received too late to allow the US Consul process the case under that Act.

Amman, Jordan, November 28, 1958.

Mr. Sirhan is applying, together with his brother, Saidallah Sirhan, (Amman Case No. 194) for consideration as a refugee-escapee. Both he and his brother are holders of a current U.N.R.W.A. ration card No. 2043013. His parents and all other members of his immediate family are residing in the United States. They were issued visas as Palestinian refugees in 1956, under the provisions of the Refugee Relief Act of 1953, and are anxious to have the remaining two members of the family join them in the United States. Mr. Sirhan has been working as a laborer and knows a fair amount of English.

Struck in Head, Hip; During Celebration; 3 Others Wounded

From News Dispatches

LOS ANGELES, June 5 (Wednesday)—Robert F. Kennedy, brother of the assassinated President John F. Kennedy, was shot early today minutes after he claimed his victory in the California primary.

He was pronounced in critical condition at Central Receiving Hospital from three wounds—two in the head and one in the hip.

At 4 a.m. (EDT) he was given the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church. Later Kennedy was transferred to Good Samaritan Hospital.

The shooting at the Ambassador Hotel turned the Kennedy victory celebration into a scene of horror and pandemonium.

Kennedy was reportedly conscious and talking after being struck by the series of shots. Almost immediately after the shooting a young man of Latin appearance in dungarees was seen being taken into custody.

The shots were fired about 3:20 a.m. EDT. At least three other men were reported wounded, Paul Schrader of the Steelworkers Union, ABC unit manager William Wiesel and Irwin Stroll, 17, of Los Angeles.

Priest Offers a Rosary

A priest, near the scene of the shooting, said he approached the fallen Senator. "I gave him the rosary and he clenched it tightly and I was pushed away. There was blood on his head."

Kennedy's wife, Ethel, expecting her 11th child, knelt by her husband before he was taken to the hospital. Her face was masked with shock.

The California victor had just left the ballroom of the Ambassador and was walking along a service corridor outside the kitchen. There was a normal crush of reporters, photographers and spectators.

At least five shots were fired, according to eyewitnesses, by a man who had been standing by a service cart.

After he was struck, Kennedy lay in a pool of blood while efforts were made to find a doctor. His brother-in-law, Stephen Smith, stood on the podium of the ballroom shouting for a doctor.

A bus boy reported that Kennedy gasped at one point. "Is everybody okay? Is everybody okay?"

Negro Olympic star Rafer Johnson and Los Angeles Ram tackle Roosevelt Grier, both of whom had been campaigning with Kennedy, reportedly seized the assailant. An accomplice was reportedly also taken into custody.

Joe La Hive, a member of Kennedy's headquarters staff, said he and another aide participated in the capture.

"We both looked at Bobby and then we both grabbed the gunman and threw him up on a table. The guy grabbed his gun and handed it to Rafer Johnson and we turned the guy over to police," said La Hive.

David Jayne, an ABC producer in Los Angeles, said he "heard several loud noises like popping firecrackers" and he dived to the ground. When he looked up Kennedy had fallen in front of him.

Emergency Treatment

One physician on the scene was quoted as saying that the Senator was going to be all right. But Kennedy was reported to be unconscious at the Central Receiving Hospital, where last rites were administered.

The assailant was described as an olive-skinned man of about 25. One witness said that he heard the gunman "shout something about saving the country."

There was an interval of about 60 seconds between the first shot and the later burst of gunfire. It was the ensuing flurry that finally awakened the victory celebrants to what had happened.

Emergency treatment was given to Kennedy at the Central Receiving Hospital, where doctors administered shots and intravenous fluid. It was while he was there that Father Thomas Teacha from St. Basil's Church was called in to administer the last rites.

Less than a half hour later the New York Senator was taken to Good Samaritan for surgery. Kennedy press aide Frank Mankiewicz described the Senator as in "stable condition" there.

"He was breathing well. He had a good heart beat," the aide said.

The shooting and ensuing bedlam was reported on live television. It was an irony reminiscent of the murder of his brother's assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald. The scene on the screen registered the same atmosphere of hysteria, disarray and mute shock.

There were cries of "Kill him! Lynch him!" as some in the crowd tried to grapple for the assailant. Kennedy's bodyguard, William Barry, and Grier shielded the suspect from the crowd.

The news of the shooting spread quickly through Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's election headquarters at the Beverly Hilton Hotel and threw a pall over a noisy crowd there.

McCarthy was awakened and went immediately to the ballroom of his hotel. He asked that the crowd there join him in a moment of silent prayer.

President Johnson was advised of the shooting immediately, but the White House withheld comment. A spokesman for Gov. Ronald Reagan said the California Chief Executive deplored the shooting and offered "whatever assistance that we can make available" to help apprehend the assailants.

The Senator's brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, telephoned the family home in Hyannis, Mass., from California and reported the shooting. The Senator's parents, Joseph and Rose Kennedy, were awakened.

C. that "if BORRY KENNEDY wins the nomination he will be killed before November."

Mrs. WILLIAMS and daughter, FRANCES D. WILLIAMS - 19, interviewed 6/5/68 by way of background related as follows:

Both Mrs. WILLIAMS and daughter have been extremely interested in current political campaign, both are strong supporters of Senator EUGENE MC CARTHY.

In May, 1968 Mrs. WILLIAMS went to Charleston, West Virginia to help campaign for MC CARTHY in the 5/14/68 Primary. About 2 A.M. of 5/16/68 she was at the MC CARTHY Campaign Headquarters and took a phone call from a STUART JOHNSON, whom she did not know. JOHNSON sounded as though he was intoxicated and commented that he had been fired by the National Headquarters for MC CARTHY in Washington, D.C. Mrs. WILLIAMS then ascertained from a worker at the MC CARTHY Campaign Headquarters that STUART JOHNSON had been sent out by the National

MC CARTHY Campaign Committee in Washington, D. C. to prepare ground work for the MC CARTHY Campaign in West Virginia.

Mrs. WILLIAMS returned to her home on or about May 16, 1968. She had a feeling there was some unexplained friction in the MC CARTHY Campaign, so she called Attorney JOHNSON for an appointment in order to discuss this matter. An appointment was made for 3:00 P.M. 5/16/68 in Attorney STUART JOHNSON's office, 910 17th Street N.W., Washington, D. C.

Mrs. WILLIAMS and daughter met with Attorney JOHNSON in his private office. They discussed for about one half hour the political campaign in general. JOHNSON acknowledged he had been discharged from the MC CARTHY National Campaign Committee in Washington due to a personality conflict, but that he was still for MC CARTHY, and was now working with another pro- MC CARTHY group (not further identified) in Washington, D.C., and that he was going to California 5/21/68 to campaign for MC CARTHY.

Mrs. WILLIAMS and daughter stated that during the meeting with Attorney JOHNSON, the latter did not discuss Senator ROBERT KENNEDY personally nor did he make any derogatory remarks about the Senator. However, Attorney JOHNSON did say there was a lot of hatred for KENNEDY throughout the nation, and stated "If BOBBY KENNEDY wins the nomination he will be killed before November."

Mrs. WILLIAMS and daughter stated that Attorney JOHNSON did not elaborate on the statement, but made it sound as though it was a matter of fact and a foregone conclusion that KENNEDY would be killed.

Mrs. WILLIAMS stated that following the conference in Attorney JOHNSON's office, the latter escorted Mrs. WILLIAMS and daughter to MC CARTHY Campaign Headquarters in Washington where he introduced them to a number of party workers.

Mrs. WILLIAMS stated that she can furnish no additional information and can not explain the specific significance behind JOHNSON's statement.

Mrs. WILLIAMS and daughter described STUART JOHNSON as a white male, age about 45, 5'11" - 6'0", slender build, graying hair, wore reading glasses.

As there does not appear to be any connection with captioned matter, this is submitted for information of Bureau, Los Angeles and WFO.

Suspect Held After Critically Wounding Candidate

Kennedy Under Surgery

LOS ANGELES, June 5 (UPI) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was shot and critically wounded early today by a gunman who mingled with the crowd at his victory celebration after the California primary election.

Four other persons also were wounded in the shooting.

About two hours later, a team of neurosurgeons prepared to operate on the 42-year-old senator to remove a bullet from his brain.

Sen. Kennedy was taken to surgery on the ninth floor of the grey-stoned hospital at 3:12 a.m. (6:12 in Washington). His brother, Sen. Edward Kennedy arrived at Los Angeles international airport a few minutes earlier and boarded a helicopter for a flight to the heart of the city.

Sen. Kennedy was shot in the head near the right ear and also suffered a lesser wound in the shoulder.

VERY CRITICAL

"The operation will take about 45 minutes to an hour," said Frank Mankiewicz, Sen. Kennedy's Press Secretary. He said the Senator was unconscious and "doctors describe his condition as very critical."

The others hit by the burst of gunfire were Paul Schrade, a Steelworkers Union official; Bill Weisel, a television newsmen, and Ira Goldstein, a radio newsmen. An unidentified woman was also reported slightly wounded.

Mr. Schrade, who had been on the platform earlier with Sen. Kennedy, suffered a scalp wound but was reported in good condition. Mr. Weisel, 30, of 2700 UKPTON ST NW, Washington, suffered a serious abdominal wound, while Mr. Goldstein, 19, was wounded in the back and leg but was in good condition.

The shooting occurred at the Ambassador Hotel as Sen. Kennedy left the Embassy room after greeting supporters with the news that he had taken the lead over Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy in the presidential preference voting.

The crowd had just heard Sen. Kennedy vow "to rid the country of violence."

Pandemonium erupted in the room when word flashed thru the crowd that the Senator had been shot. Many thought some firecrackers had been triggered to climax the celebration. A suspect was seized within seconds by Sen. Kennedy's aides, Roosevelt Grier and Rafer Johnson, sports star members of Sen. Kennedy's party. They said the suspect, tentatively identified as Jesse Greer, about 23, attempted to hide behind a steam table in a kitchen off the Embassy room.

'FOR MY COUNTRY'

One witness said the man who was captured was yelling something about saving the country or something. What he said was something like 'I did it for my country'."

Sandra Serrano of Pasadena, Calif., a student and Kennedy worker, was present when the suspect was seized. "He was about 23 years old and he was Mexican-American," Miss Serrano said.

Reporter John Marshall of the Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. said the suspect was "armed with a small caliber revolver."

"We do not have information at this point to lead us to believe that any conspiracy was involved, altho we have not ruled that out," said Police Inspector Robert Rock later.

The inspector did not immediately identify the suspect who was described as a black-haired youth wearing a sweatshirt and blue jeans. He "put up a good fight" before being subdued," someone said.

"As of now, he has declined to tell us who he is or anything about himself," Inspector Rock said. "We have the gun in custody."

SHAKING HANDS

Martin Petruski, a waiter at the Ambassador Hotel, said he had just finished shaking hands with Sen. Kennedy and "all of a sudden this fellow jumped out and he started to fire. It was so fast. And all of a sudden somebody was yelling 'Grab him! Grab him!'"

"Then the Senator slid down to his knees.

"His eyes were open when he started to go down.

"His wife came over and she asked the photographers to please stop taking pictures. She wasn't crying or anything."

The Senator was a half step ahead of his wife, Ethel, when the shooting occurred.

"He was walking thru the kitchen toward a corridor going to the freight elevator," said Norbert Schlei, a Los Angeles Democrat who was 10 feet behind the Senator.

"He stopped to shake hands with the kitchen help and I heard a sound . . . clap, clap, clap, clap. It didn't sound at all like gunfire.

"It sounded like a cap pistol or someone popping a paper sack. There were four people lying on the floor after the shots . . . There was a tremendous crush of people.

"A girl rushed to the front of the podium and said 'He's been shot,'" UPI correspondent John Chambers reported. "They've shot Kennedy."

Sen. Kennedy's brother-in-law Stephen Smith rushed to the podium and shouted, "Is there a doctor in the house? Is there a doctor in the house? A doctor is needed urgently!"

Gabor Kadar, who said he was waiting at the rear exit to the room to shake hands with the Senator, heard four or five shots and saw Sen. Kennedy and a woman fall to the floor.

"Sen. Kennedy was holding the right side of his chest and there was blood on his head," Mr. Kadar said.

Warren Wilson, a reporter for the Westinghouse Broadcasting Co., reported that Sen. Kennedy was conscious and talking after the shooting.

Mr. Kadar said he saw Sen. Kennedy's wife, Ethel, kneeling beside the Senator as he lay on the floor of the hotel kitchen.

Aides quickly blocked the entrance to the room where the Senator was lying.

SEEMED CONSCIOUS

"Sen. Kennedy lay on the floor and his face was tense and white but he seemed conscious. I didn't hear him say anything," Mr. Schlei said. He said an ambulance crew took him away on a stretcher by way of the freight elevator. He said there was blood on the floor. ABC said a priest rushed up to Sen. Kennedy and handed him a rosary. Sen. Kennedy clutched it as he was carried to the ambulance.

Mrs. Smith, speaking calmly moments after the shooting, said:

"The best thing everybody can do here is in an orderly fashion leave the room. Would you please do that? In an orderly way clear the room. The best thing and the most helpful thing would be to leave the room."

After the shooting a crowd of nearly 500 persons knelt in prayer around the fountain in the main lobby of the hotel.

Sen. Kennedy was taken first to Central Receiving Hospital and transferred within an hour to nearby Good Samaritan Hospital. Several specialists, including a neurosurgeon, were summoned.

The shooting occurred about 12:15 a.m. PDT (3:15 a.m. in Washington) as Sen. Kennedy pulled a bare 1000 votes ahead of Sen. McCarthy. Nearly two hours later, aides said Sen. Kennedy was breathing steadily and the bleeding from his wounds had been stopped.

FAMILY CALLED

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, (D., Mass.), brother of Robert Kennedy, phoned his family in Hyannis, Mass., and said his brother had been shot twice, a family spokesman said.

The Senator's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, were not awakened and informed of the shooting, according to Ann Gargan, a niece of the elder Mr. Kennedy. She said Mrs. Kennedy probably would be told when she awakened to attend an early morning Roman Catholic mass. Sen. Kennedy's father is a semi-invalid as a result of a stroke several years ago.

Dr. Ross Miller, who attended Sen. Kennedy immediately after the Senator was shot, said Sen. Kennedy had a head wound, but a "good heart beat."

It was a " cursory examination," Dr. Miller said, but on its basis "I would be forced to describe his condition as critical."

Dr. Miller said Sen. Kennedy's pulse was "rapid but strong and full."

Gene Pell, a Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. correspondent, said Sen. Kennedy had an oxygen mask on his face when he was transferred to Good Samaritan Hospital. He said Sen. Kennedy appeared to be unconscious and a plasma bottle was suspended over the stretcher.

A large crowd gathered outside Good Samaritan Hospital as word of the shooting spread thruout the city.

Police were stationed at the hospital doors.

Jeane Foresaw RFK's Fate

By DON MacLEAN

For Jeane Dixon, the famous Washington seeress, the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy (D., N.Y.) in Los Angeles, Calif., was a ghastly repetition of the events leading up to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, in Dallas, Tex.

According to a number of witnesses, Mrs. Dixon, as long ago as last January, predicted that there would be "a planned attempt" on Robert Kennedy's life.

She told this to businessmen in Nashville, Tenn., last January; to her luncheon partner, also in Nashville; to Alex Bilanow, Real Estate Editor of The Washington Daily News; and to former Rep. Frank Boykins (D., Ala.).

In her 1968 forecasts for Newsday Inc., she saw "a dark cloud" over Sen. Kennedy; In an interview with the Evening Star newspaper here, she predicted that Sen. Kennedy might have "a great — and planned — accident."

Mrs. Dixon, whose column of forecasts and horoscope readings appears here exclusively in The Washington Daily News, is the wife of local real estate broker James L. Dixon. Since she arrived in Washington, during World War II, Mrs. Dixon has made some uncannily accurate predictions, many of which are documented in the best-selling book, "Gift of Prophecy," written by Ruth Montgomery.

The prediction for which she is most widely known involved the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. As early as 1956, she said on radio and TV interviews that she saw "a blue-eyed young man, a Democrat, as President, and a dark cloud hovering over the White House."

After Mr. Kennedy was elected, she told numerous friends that she had had a "presentiment" that he would be assassinated. "At the time," Mrs. Dixon said, "all of my friends urged me to stop saying things like that. But I told them he should be warned."

On several occasions, shortly before JFK left for Dallas, Mrs. Dixon tried to get mutual friends to beg him not to go. Just before noon, on Nov. 22, 1963, Mrs. Dixon was lunching with three friends at the Mayflower Hotel here.

"All at once, it came to me," Mrs. Dixon said. "I blurted out, 'I see the President being shot!' My friends urged me to be still. About 30 minutes later, Sidney, the orchestra leader leaned over to talk to an excited waiter. Then Sidney stopped the music and said, 'The President has been shot.' One of my friends said, 'Oh, I hope he's only wounded.' I said, 'No, I'm afraid he's dead.'"

The prediction about Robert Kennedy was along similar lines. While speaking before a group of sales executives in Nashville, Tenn., on Jan. 9, 1968, Mrs. Dixon said a vision revealed to her that Robert Kennedy would be in physical danger soon.

'WILL BE SHOT'

Later that day, according to a copyrighted story in the Nashville Banner, Jeane Dixon told her luncheon companion, a prominent Nashville businessman, that "Bobby Kennedy will be shot."

Her January column of predictions for Newsday Inc., carried the following paragraph: "I get a dark cloud around Sen. Kennedy with strings that lead backward. This I see as a tragic event in which he was an unwilling participant long before his brother's assassination — this event still hangs over him. It seems as tho the heavens will not allow a shining light to break thru for him at this time. However, I see surprising changes and decisions around him."

Also in January, the Evening Star, in an interview, quoted Jeane Dixon as saying this: "I see a great burst around Sen. Kennedy. This could mean a great tragic — and planned — accident."

Last September, Alex Bilanow interviewed Mrs. Dixon for a story regarding the real estate interests of both Mrs. Dixon and her husband.

"We were sitting in a restaurant," Mr. Bilanow said, "when Mrs. Dixon said, 'Something terrible is going to happen to Sen. Robert Kennedy. I wouldn't be in his shoes for anything!'"

"I said, 'What do you mean, Jeane, a plane crash or an automobile accident?' She said, 'No, much worse. He's going to be shot.'"

Interview for complete details on her sources.

IRP report of investigation dated 8/23/56, at Amman, concerning ADEL BISHARA SALAMEH GHATTAS SIRHAN, brother of subject.

The Bureau is advised that identical copies of these investigative reports are being furnished to the Bureau through liaison channels by the Office of Security (SY), Department of State, on 6/6/68.

These documents were made available to SA KENNETH J. HASER on 6/6/68, by SA SIDNEY T. TELFORD of SY who obtained them from the Visa Office, Department of State.

Los Angeles will note that the investigative report concerning subject's mother points out that her case includes her sons SARHAN SIRHAN, subject, and his brother MUNIR SIRHAN. Los Angeles will also note that these investigative reports contain background information concerning members of this family. An apparent discrepancy is noted in that the mother's file states she has four children, all accompanying her whereas the file of BESHARA SIRHAN states that he had six children, none of whom would accompany him. It is believed that this is explained by the difference in dates of these respective reports.

FROM : ROBERT H. SYLVESTER, Clerk

SUBJECT: KENSALT

DATE: 6/6/68

At 8:54pm, 6/6/68, a telephone call was received from an individual who identified himself as Dr. GERALD JAN SCHIPPER, who resides on a farm in Urbana, Maryland (Frederick County), telephone 301;874-2421. Dr. SCHIPPER said he is a retired dermatologist. He is a native of the Netherlands and has been a naturalized American citizen since 1949. He advised as follows:

During the evening of 6/6/68 he observed on television a picture of the owner of the Organic Health Store, Pasadena, where SIRHAN SIRHAN is alleged to have worked at one time. The owner of the store was identified on television as one JOHN H. WEIDNER, Jr. Dr. SCHIPPER immediately recognized WEIDNER as an individual he knew as JEAN H. WEIDNER, Jr., during World War II. WEIDNER in 1943 operated a clothing store in Annecy, Haute Savoy, France. This clothing store was a clearing house for members of the Dutch underground and other spies who desired to go to Switzerland.

Dr. SCHIPPER was a civilian active in the Dutch underground. Dr. SCHIPPER was jailed in Annecy, France during the War. WEIDNER contacted SCHIPPER then and facilitated SCHIPPER's escape. It is Dr. SCHIPPER's understanding that WEIDNER was decorated by the Queen of Holland for his service to that country.

Dr. SCHIPPER was aware that many operatives in the underground during the War like WEIDNER were communists. Dr. SCHIPPER never had any information that WEIDNER was a communist, however.

Dr. SCHIPPER last saw WEIDNER in 1944 or 1945 when WEIDNER contacted him for assistance. Dr. SCHIPPER was then working for the Dutch government.

Dr. SCHIPPER advised that although he hasn't seen WEIDNER since 1944 or 1945, he immediately recognized his photograph on television, and he is sure of the identification.

Dr. SCHIPPER suggested that complete details re WEIDNER's background could probably be obtained from the files of the Dutch Secret Service.

Dr. SCHIPPER said that he was bringing this matter to the attention of the FBI not because he has any information there is any connection with the assassination of Senator KENNEDY, but because it is an "interesting coincidence."

Dr. SCHIPPER offered his complete cooperation if the FBI desires further details re his association with WEIDNER. He suggested telephonic contact with him for the purposes of interview arrangements.

WFO Indices were negative re the name JEAN H. WEIDNER, JR., or JOHN H. WEIDNER, Jr.

The only reference in WFO Indices re complainant's name concerns one GERALD J. SCHIPPER (Dr.), WFOfile 100-33226-1105, p. 13.

Suspect Is a Jordanian, 24

By William Chapman
Washington Post Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES, June 5—
A 24-year-old native of Jordan, described by interrogators as unremorseful and occasionally flippant, was identified by Los Angeles police today as the suspect seized in the shooting of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.
Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, who lives in Pasadena, refused to discuss the shooting although he talked freely and articulately today about other matters, police said.

According to Police Chief Thomas Reddin, the suspect's identity was traced through the .22 caliber pistol seized after the shooting in the Ambassador Hotel and through fingerprints taken when he applied for a racetrack job.

Police investigators said they had not determined a motive for the shooting and had no evidence the suspect had been hired by anyone. In his pockets, they found a newspaper article critical of Kennedy and four $100 bills.

Reddin said he would not rule out the possibility of a involving other people insisted there is no way to suggest that one existed.

Reddin said an extensive check had been made of files of subversive organizations, including those representing foreign nationals living in this country. The suspect's name had not turned up in any of those files, the chief said.

Reddin said the case against Sirhan now appears to be so solid that his investigators plan no further interviews. He disclosed, however, that he and the district attorney have agreed that the suspect should be subjected to a psychological test.

[Sirhan was considered by acquaintances to be a "virulent anti-Semite," Jerry Cohen of the Los Angeles Times reported.

[John H. Wiedner, operator of Organic of Pasadena, a health food chain where Sirhan worked as a stock and delivery boy until April, called him "a good worker, an honest man."

"But he had a lot of complexes, mainly related to Israel," said Wiedner. "He claimed when he was young he had seen some people, maybe some relatives, killed by Israelis.

"Sen. Kennedy said the other day he wanted to help Israel. So I was not surprised

[The same theme was echoed by Dr. Mohammad T. Mehdi, secretary general of the Action Committee on American-Arab Relations, in New York City.

The Associated Press

quoted Mehdi as saying that Sirhan "may have been inflamed" by Sen. Kennedy's backing of the Israeli cause during his TV debate with Sen. Eugene S. McCarthy (D-Minn.).

"[It is this disrespect for the human Arab person which brings about this kind of violence," Mehdi said. He added that Sirhan was active in the Organization of Arab Students while attending Pasadena State College.

[In a formal statement Mehdi said: "We condemn the fact that Senator Kennedy had kowtowed to the Zionist pressure to the detriment of American interest in the Middle East, as we condemn the act of Mr. Sirhan."]

A swarthy, slender man, Sirhan was arraigned in Los Angeles Municipal Court this morning and then held in the Los Angeles County jail.

According to Lt. Jack Eberhardt, an executive aide to Reddin, interrogators found Sirhan articulate but adamant in his refusal to discuss either the shooting or his political views.

"He's bantering with the investigators at this point," Eberhardt said. "He's flip."

But Eberhardt said that Sirhan talked eagerly about one subject — a sensational local murder case last year in which a Los Angeles County deputy district attorney was convicted of killing his wife and her lover. Sirhan brought up the case several times and was interested in whether the convicted murderer, Jack Kirshke, would win freedom in his appeal.

Sirhan was born March 19, 1944, in the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem and entered the United States through New York City Jan. 12, 1957, according to the Immigration and Naturalization Service. He was then classed as a permanent resident, the Service said, but never became an American citizen.

Both his first and last names mean "wanderer" in Arabic.

Sirhan and two brothers, Munir (Joe) and Adel, live with their mother, Mary Sirhan, an employee of a Pasadena church nursery in Pasadena. There are unconfirmed reports that his father returned several years ago to an as yet undetermined Arab country.

Sirhan graduated in 1963 from John Muir High School in Pasadena before going to Pasadena State. According to the Los Angeles Times, classmates considered him "polite, clean and an A-1 student."

Munir and Adel Sirhan were being questioned by police late in the day and were described as "cooperative."

Besides Munir and Adel, the suspect has two other brothers named Sharif and Saldallah. A fifth brother is believed to exist but has not been identified so far.

A sister has died since entering this country. Sirhan's father has returned to Jerusalem, police said.

The suspect had ham and eggs for breakfast and ate heartily, police said.

Identification of Sirhan — who had refused throughout the night to tell police his name — was announced at a press conference this morning by Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty.

Mayor Yorty, in an off-the-cuff television interview, disclosed during the afternoon that police had found two hand-written notebooks in the suspect's home and said they contained "generally pro-Communist writings."

Yorty said the notebook writings were in favor of Egyptian President Nasser and strongly anti-Israeli and anti-Kennedy.

Yorty also said an article found among Sirhan's belongings in Pasadena declared that Kennedy should not be allowed to live after June 5 (first anniversary of the Arab-Israeli war).

Later, Reddin indicated that he thought Yorty should not have discussed the notebooks because they might prejudice the trial of Sirhan.

A fellow worker at Hollywood Park racetrack said Sirhan recently fell off a horse trying to become a jockey. He worked briefly there as a "hot walker," riding sweaty horses to cool them off.

"When there was trouble between Jordan and Israel, he would become inflamed," the Associated Press quoted John Shear, an assistant trainer as saying. "Since I wasn't interested in politics I would not discuss it. But he was violently pro-Jordan and anti-Israeli."

[Sirhan was arranged before Municipal Court Judge Joan Dempsey Klein at 7:40 a.m., according to the Los Angeles Times. The Times said Police Chief Reddin and District Attorney Evelle J. Younger decided to charge and arraign him as soon as possible to eliminate any possibility that Sirhan could meet the fate that befell Lee Harvey Oswald, slain after the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963.]

The arraignment was secret. Sirhan talked informally for several minutes with County Public Defender Richard Buckley. Judge Klein then asked twice: "Do you have a name?"

At approximately 2:40am, instant, THOMAS PATRICK RILEY, 1005 New Hampshire Avenue, Apt. 4, telephonically contacted the WFO re captioned case.

RILEY stated he wished to be interviewed in connection with the captioned case. Riley advised he felt the "whole mess" seemed fictitious to him and he wished someone would pay respect to what he felt. Caller refused to elaborate in specifics stating he was just as "coy" as the next individual.

Caller stated he had contacted the WFO, 6/6/68, requesting that FBI agents meet him at the doorway of his apartment building inasmuch as he had refused to give his name at the time of that call.

RILEY, who gave his DOB 3/14/21, stated he had attended school with the Kennedys in Massachusetts. Riley also advised he had been employed by the New England Telephone Company.

Caller revealed he has been residing in WDC approximately one year listing his former residence as 17 Parker Staples Road, Dedham, Mass.

Riley, who has no telephone at his residence, stated he was calling from a pay telephone, #296-9837, located at the Washington Circle.

WFO indices reflect a THOMAS PATRICK RILEY, DOB 3/16/26, referenced in WFO file 105-14317-1354.

RE EARL OLANDIA MURPHY

On June 5, 1968, Earl Olandia Murphy, 5932 Third Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., telephone 723-9318, advised that a few days before the assassination of Dr. King he attended a rally for Senator Kennedy at 14th and Park Road, Northwest, Washington, D. C. The man beside him held up a round object approximately two feet long and three inches in diameter with an electric cord extending from it. He asked the man what the object was and he said it was a microphone and began running. He chased him a short distance but lost him in the crowd. He described the man as a white male, 5'6" tall, 100 pounds, stocky build, 35 to 40 years old, wore a dark top coat and a hat. He said he might be able to recognize this man again and furnish information as it may relate to the shooting of Senator Kennedy.

Bufiles indicate that one Earl Olandia Murphy, FBI Number 342 285 E was arrested by the Metropolitan Police Department in 1962 for investigation of indecent exposure.

Washington Field locate Murphy immediately and interview him in detail in order to determine if he has any information of value.

Woman Is Sought In Slaying

BULLETIN

LOS ANGELES — An all-points bulletin was issued by the Los Angeles Police Department today for an unidentified white woman in connection with the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy.

The bulletin said: "Prior to the shooting, suspect (Sirhan Sirhan, who had been charged with the shooting) was observed with a female Caucasian, 23 to 27 years old, 5 feet 6, wearing a white voile dress, three-quarter-length sleeves, with small blue polka dots, dark shoes and a bouffant-type hairdo. This female is not in custody."

By ROBERT WALTERS and JEREMIAH O'LEARY
Star Staff Writers

His family immigrated to the United States in 1957 from the Middle East—that part of the world where the word "assassin" originated centuries ago.

One of his brothers says "all I know is he is a nice kid." His mother says "it can't be true. My son is a good boy. He has caused no trouble."

Los Angeles Police Chief Thomas Reddin describes him as "very cool, very calm, very stable and quite lucid."

But a woman who worked with him in a California health food store says he was "unstable when in some kind of a state."

Contradictory Picture of Sirhan Is Emerging

mission of religion and politics."

And a co-worker at the Hollywood Park Race Track says he was "violently pro-Jordan and anti-Israeli."

Slowly, a picture has started to emerge of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, the 24-year-old Jordanian held in the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Now under maximum security guard in a hospital ward at Los Angeles County Central Jail, he is charged with six counts of assault with attempt to commit murder.

Those charges were filed early yesterday morning, in the wake of the shooting spree which left Kennedy and five other persons wounded. Los Angeles officials were meeting today to determine what new charges should be filed as a result of the senator's death.

William L. Ritz, a Los Angeles assistant district attorney, said the grand jury which will hear the case against Sirhan tomorrow will be asked by officials to return a murder indictment.

Sirhan, recovering from a broken index finger and a sprained left ankle received in the melee following the shooting, was arraigned on the assault charges shortly after 7 a.m. yesterday.

He was taken under heavy police guard to the Los Angeles Hall of Justice, where he appeared before Municipal Judge Joan Dempsey Klein. Bail was set at $250,000 and a public defender was called into the case by the judge, despite Sirhan's insistence that he did not want legal counsel.

The record shows Sirhan is 5 feet, 4 inches tall, weighs about 120 pounds, has a swarthy complexion and wiry or bushy hair. He was born March 19, 1944, in a small village in Palestine.

At the time, the area was ruled by Britain under the League of Nations mandate. With Britain's blessing, Jordan became a kingdom in 1946. Two years later the British mandate ended and the first Arab-Israeli war was fought.

After the Jordan-Israeli armistice was signed on April 3, 1949, Jordan kept an enclave of Palestinian territory, including Old Jerusalem and the village where Sirhan lived. Israeli forces took the territory last year in the six-day war that began June 5, a year to the day before Kennedy was shot.

Records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service show that Sirhan and six other members of his family arrived in this country shortly after another of the seemingly endless string of Middle East military and political crises.

That was the Suez crisis of 1956. Several months later, on Jan. 12, 1957, Sirhan and six other members of his family arrived in New York City and were admitted to the United States as "permanent residents."

States as "permanent residents."

Including Sirhan, these were the father, mother, four sons and one daughter. Another son came to the U.S. later. The father has since returned to the Middle East and the daughter is dead. None of the others has been naturalized.

Permanent resident status is currently held by approximately 3.5 million persons, many of them refugees, who have immigrated to this country.

Those who enter the country as permanent residents enjoy all of the legal protection granted to full citizens and are required to pay taxes.

They cannot vote, but depending on immigration quotas, length of time spent in this country and other factors, they may be allowed to seek the status of naturalized citizen.

Sirhan's family traces its roots back to a small village called Siliwan on the outskirts of Old Jerusalem, located in the West Bank sector seized by Israel from Jordan last June.

Arab sources say there are about 250 persons named Sirhan in the village, all members of branches of the same family.

Origin of "Assassins"

It was in that same part of the world, hundreds of years ago, that a secret order of Ismaili Moslems terrorized non-believers. They often were under the influence of hashish, and came to be known as "assassins" in a corruption of the word "hashish."

Over the past two decades, Middle East political assassinations have claimed the lives of numerous government leaders, monarchs and others, including the father of the current king of Jordan, who attempted to seek an accommodation with Israel.

Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty yesterday said that when police searched Sirhan following his arrest they found in one of his pockets an article by newspaper columnist David Lawrence on "Kennedy's dove position on Vietnam and his hawk position on the Middle East."

Yorty's press secretary, Tom Jordine, said the column attempted "to show Kennedy's inconsistencies in trying to win votes of all types of people." Also in Sirhan's possession, according to police, was a list of Kennedy's scheduled public appearances in California.

THE WASHINGTON DAILY NEWS

WASHINGTON-AFRO AMERICAN

In his televised debate with Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy last Saturday night, Kennedy said "we have a commitment to Israel" and specifically urged the Johnson administration to send 50 supersonic Phantom jet planes to Israel.

Kennedy, perhaps more than any of the other declared candidates seeking the nomination for the presidency, had been an outspoken supporter of Israeli independence, but virtually all of the candidates have been in general agreement on a pro-Israel position.

Acting with the permission of Sirhan's family, police yesterday searched the Pasadena home and found two 9-by-12-inch spiral-bound notebooks similar to those used by students.

The notebooks, which Yorty said apparently belonged to Sirhan, contained 18 to 20 pages of handwritten notes and some doodling. Most of the notes were in English, but some were in Arabic, the mayor said.

He said the notebooks contained "many statements about assassinating Sen. Robert F. Kennedy," other comments of a pro-Arab and anti-Israel nature and some references "saying the suspect is sympathetic to communism, whether it be Russian, Chinese and so forth."

Finally, said the mayor, there was a notation made in one of the notebooks on either May 17 or 18 which was "a direct reference to the necessity to assassinate Sen. Kennedy before June 5, 1968."

Those remarks by Yorty, made at a press conference, drew rebukes from both Reddin and A. L. Wirin, chief counsel of the Southern California chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union, both of whom implied that such disclosures might be prejudicial to Sirhan's legal rights.

Sirhan was 12 years old when his family entered this country. He attended Longfellow Elementary School and John Muir High School in Pasadena and attended Pasadena City College. Several of his high school classmates described him as a good and polite student.

But Frank Celis Jr., who was in the sixth grade with Sirhan, recalled yesterday that "kids picked on him, telling him dirty words. He'd repeat them without knowing what they meant."

Still another classmate, a girl who attended high school with Sirhan but asked not to be identified, recalled yesterday that he was shy and fastidious about always wearing a white shirt. "He wouldn't hurt a fly," she said.

He worked at Organic Pasadena, an organic health food store located about 1 1/2 blocks from the middle-income, tree-shaded street where the Sirhan family lives.

"He was a hard worker, honest and good-hearted but nevertheless a fanatic when it came to discussions about religion and politics," recalled Mrs. Bisle Boyko, a former co-worker at the store. "But

Quit After Argument

John H. Weidner Jr., owner of the store, said Sirhan worked for him about seven months but quit last April in an argument over money. "We called him Sol around the store; everyone did," said Weidner.

"He was a good worker, an honest man, but he had a lot of complexes, mainly relating to Israel," added Weidner. "I think he did it (shot Kennedy) because he thought he was doing something for his country, but not necessarily the United States," added Weidner.

The store owner recalled that Sirhan "told me that when he was a child, he saw members of his family killed by Jews, and he had to flee Jordan when he was a child."

"He was not a citizen and didn't like the United States. You had to be careful not to walk on his feet. He wanted you to respect him intellectually. He was a man who said, 'I'm going to have my rights.'"

Sirhan was licensed in 1966 by the California Racing Commission as a "hot walker" and "exercise boy" to cool off horses which had become heated by running at Hollywood Park. He did not renew that license in 1967 or 1968, but apparently retained a strong interest in horse racing.

"He wanted to be a jockey, and the people around the track advised him to get a job on a farm where he could exercise horses and learn to ride," said John Shear, a co-worker at Hollywood Park.

"When there was trouble between Jordan and Israel, he would become inflamed," Shear added. "Since I wasn't interested in politics, I wouldn't discuss it, but he was violently pro-Jordan and anti-Israeli."

Thrown From Horse

Sirhan suffered head and back injuries when he was thrown from a horse on Sept. 25, 1966. He filed a claim with the Argonaut Insurance Co., which had earlier issued a policy in his name.

He was awarded $2,000 on April 5 in settlement of a court suit stemming from that accident, but legal fees and other expenses reduced the size of the award to $1,705.

Recalling that incident, Sirhan's mother, Mrs. Mary Sirhan, yesterday pointed to her right temple and said her son "hurt his head right here."

Mrs. Sirhan, a housekeeper at Westminster Presbyterian Nursery School in Pasadena, cried in shock when she learned of her son's arrest. "My son — it can't be. No. Oh no."

Later she recalled that "ever since he had a fall about a year ago, he hasn't been the same. I can't talk to him."

Money in Possession

When Sirhan was taken into custody yesterday, he had in his possession four $100 bills and about $10 in small bills and change. Police believe the large bills may have been part of the award from the horse accident.

Also found in Sirhan's pocket was a key to a 1959 automobile parked near the Ambassador Hotel, where the assassination occurred.

Reddin said the car belonged to a hotel employe who worked in the kitchen where Kennedy was shot. The employe was quoted by police as saying he did not know Sirhan and did not know how Sirhan got the key.

Reddin discounted speculation that others were involved in the shooting. "We are now reasonably sure that there's only one suspect," he said yesterday.

Conspiracy Discounted

The police chief also said he did not read any "sinister international aspects into the case — we still do not feel we are in a conspiratorial situation."

He said a check of official files showed no memberships on Sirhan's part in any subversive organizations "that we know of."

Immigration and Naturalization Service records list Sirhan's four brothers living in this country as Adel, Munir, Saidallah and Sharief.

Reddin said Munir and Adel came to police voluntarily yesterday after seeing a picture of their brother on television following his arrest. They were cleared of any implication in the crime and released after questioning, police said.

Sirhan, Adel and Munir lived with their mother, Reddin said. Sharief lives in Highland Park, Calif., and Saidallah lives in New York, according to Reddin.

Marijuana Conviction

Munir was convicted on Oct. 12, 1966, in Superior Court of California on a state charge of possession of marijuana. He was sentenced to five years' probation.

As a result of that incident, the Immigration and Naturalization Service initiated deportation proceedings against him in January 1967, and last July a special inquiry officer ordered that Munir be deported.

However, Munir appealed the case to the Board of Immigration Appeals, which on May 27 remanded the case back to the special inquiry officer for further investigation because the California court had set aside Munir's guilty plea and ordered that jurisdiction be assumed by juvenile authorities.

Booked Previously

An investigator with the Los Angeles district attorney's office today said he was told by Pasadena police that Sirhan Sirhan had been taken into custody last December, but he declined to provide the season or charge.

Pasadena police said they had a "red flag" file on Sirhan, indicating he had been booked previously, but they said they could not confirm if he had been formally arrested.

Russell Stone, a Pasadena policeman, said the file was in the possession of detectives and was not immediately available for inspection. He said the file dated from March 1961, when Sirhan reported a bicycle stolen.

There also was a notation that Sirhan complained he was the victim of a disturbance in 1963, and other notations indicated that in 1962 and again in March Sirhan was arrested in a disturbance. In the March case, Stone said,

Revolver's Ownership

The snub-nosed, .22-caliber Iver Johnson "Cadet" revolver police said was used to shoot Kennedy passed through the hands of at least four other persons from the time it was first purchased in August 1965 until it was wrested from Sirhan's hands.

Alvert L. Hertz, a 72-year-old Alhambra man seeking protection for his home, bought it during the Watts racial rioting. He gave it to his daughter, Mrs. Robert F. Westlake of Pasadena, who also used it for protection.

Mrs. Westlake decided she did not want the gun because of the possible danger it posed to her two young children and sold it to an 18-year-old neighbor, George Charles Erhard.

Erhard told police that he subsequently sold the pistol "to a bushy-haired guy named Joe," according to Reddin. "Joe" turned out to be the nickname for one of Sirhan's brothers, Munir, who told police he did not know how Sirhan got the weapon.

Bullet Shattered Kennedy's Brain

LOS ANGELES, June 7 (UPI) — The bullet wound in the brain of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was so severe that even if he had lived there would have been "extensive damage," Coroner Thomas Noguchi said yesterday.

"Scattered fragments of the bullet and bone tissue damaged the main portion of the right side of the brain," said the Coroner. He refused to comment specifically on whether there might have been impairment of eyesight, speech and movement but said "the injury was so severe as to cause extensive damage."

Another bullet entered the back portion of the right arm pit and traveled upward. It lodged just beneath the flesh of Sen. Kennedy's neck. That bullet was removed and turned over to the police. It tore thru layers of muscle tissue but did not penetrate any vital organs.

Dr. Noguchi said all the vital organs were removed from Sen. Kennedy's body, including the entire brain, and retained here for further pathological examination.

The complete autopsy report will not be completed for a few weeks, said Dr. Noguchi. "It must be thoro. Let me emphasize that we have the very best of facilities," he said.

Dr. Noguchi, two pathologists on his staff and three medical consultants from the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology in Washington, D. C., completed the autopsy in 6 hours and 15 minutes.

Kennedy Lies in State; Funeral Tomorrow With Burial Here

Rich and Poor Say a Final Farewell

NEW YORK, June 7 (UPI) — Thousands of mourners filled St. Patrick's Cathedral at sunrise today in a last farewell to Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. They wept, crossed themselves and some kissed his coffin in bereavement.

The princely rich whose background he shared and the struggling poor whose cause he championed came in sadness to the mighty Gothic cathedral on Fifth Avenue to pass by the closed coffin. His adopted city and the nation were saying goodbye to the assassinated Senator they knew as Bobby.

The grieving multitudes came in work clothes and finery. They passed in two single files at the rate of 40 per minute.

POPE PAUL SAYS MASS

In Vatican City, Pope Paul VI offered mass for the repose of the soul of the 42-year-old Senator. The Pontiff celebrated the mass in his private chapel, with only his two secretaries looking on.

But it was in St. Patrick's that the sorrow of the nation was most dramatically demonstrated.

The mass for the dead began at 6 a.m., at an altar some distance from the casket. As the mourners passed by the bier, the voice of a priest could be heard.

"Let us pray that God will bless Bobby Kennedy, that God will bless this nation. . ."

"Let us pray that God will give the Kennedy family courage to endure this trying time . . ."

It was one of eight masses today for the Senator.

Mary Ann Camp, 30, of Oldbridge, N. J., stood silently all night, looking at the twin spires of the massive cathedral. She brought three children with her, Linda, 10; Billy, 7, and Jimmy, 5. The youngest two were lying in the warm night air on a blanket spread on the sidewalk.

"I just felt it was something I had to do," she said. "I wanted my children to see. I am trying to teach them to live by the rules.

"I wanted them to see what happened when people don't."

TEDDY KEEPS VIGIL

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, whose three older brothers died violently serving their country, remained in the chancery of the cathedral through much of the long night, kneeling beside the casket bearing his brother. It was grimly reminiscent of another seemingly endless night, nearly five years ago, when the body of President Kennedy was borne by presidential jet to Washington after that bleak day in Dallas.

Now Robert Kennedy had made his last, long airplane trip. The body was borne from Los Angeles to New York Thursday.

The plane jet touched down at Marine Terminal, Laguardia Airport. Thousands waited there — a few were friends of the family, others were among a multitude to whom Sen. Kennedy was, simply, a hero.

The 10-mile trip to Midtown Manhattan was made swiftly by motorcade. Along Astoria Boulevard in Queens, at the approach to the Triborough Bridge into Manhattan, thousands stood, watching the black cars speed by. More of the curious and the sorrowful watched the cortege weave thru Manhattan's cramped streets.

The body was borne to St. Patrick's for a private service for the family and close friends.

The coffin was taken from the hearse, in which Sen. Kennedy's widow Ethel had ridden from the airport, and carried into the church. Pall bearers included his brother and two of the late Senator's sons.

Edward Kennedy walked out after the seven minute ceremony with the rest of the family, then went back inside to continue his vigil. He left more than three hours later for a brief rest, but returned before dawn.

BURIAL HERE TOMORROW

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow. The body then will be borne by train to Washington for burial in Arlington National Cemetery.

At approximately 5:30 p.m., Sen. Kennedy will be buried beside his brother, the slain President, and John F. Kennedy's two infant children.

Returning with the body on the train will be members of the family, with close friends and aides of the Senator. There will also be a special car on the train carrying a large delegation of Senators who were to fly to New York earlier in the day to attend the mass for their dead colleague.

These mourners will form the nucleus of a motorecade procession that will form when the train arrives here at 4:40 p.m. It is expected to move down Delaware av from the station to Constitution av and across Memorial Bridge to Arlington Cemetery.

The procession will pass the New Senate Office Building and the Justice Department where the Senator held offices.

POOR PEOPLE HONOR GUARD

It was reported that the Kennedy family intends to ask that Poor Peoples' Campaign leaders delegate an "honor guard" to accompany the body during the procession.

Arrangements for the procession are being co-ordinated thru a close friend of the family, Chief U.S. Marshal John P. McShane.

District police will handle movement of the procession thru city streets. Leaves and day-off time have been canceled and two-thirds of the District's 3000-man force is expected to be on duty. National Guardsmen are also expected to be on hand to help with traffic control.

Lookout for Woman in Polka Dots

Indictment Is Sought for Suspect

LOS ANGELES, June 7 (UPI) — A California grand jury assembled today to consider a request for a murder indictment against Sirhan Sirhan, the accused assassin of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Sheriff's officers tightened security at the Los Angeles County jail in response to phoned threats to storm the jail and kill the 24-year-old Jordanian immigrant. They said the callers said they would risk anything — even death — to eliminate the man they believe killed Sen. Kennedy.

Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess said Sirhan, captured Wednesday morning at the Ambassador hotel after Sen. Kennedy was felled by a bullet in the brain, remained outwardly calm and unconcerned. The slight, swarthy race track exercise boy and health store stock clerk was confined to a 12-by-12 windowless cell in the remote hospital wing of the downtown jail.

CONSTANT WATCH

A dim ceiling light illuminated the gray walls of the cell and the prison bunk he slept upon. A wash basin and toilet were the only other furnishings. An unarmed, uniformed deputy sat on a stool outside the cell and watched Sirhan's every move. A second armed deputy outside kept his eyes glued on the suspect thru an unbreakable glass porthole.

Four guards paced up and down a narrow corridor outside. Other deputies patrolled every nook and cranny of the jail complex.

The extreme concern over keeping Sirhan alive convinced Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger to go to the grand jury for the indictment, rather than following the normal procedure of filing a formal murder complaint.

Filing a complaint necessitates a preliminary hearing, a courtroom proceeding that would have required Sirhan to be present. The grand jury method carries no such equipment.

No law enforcement official here wants to transfer Sirhan from his tightly guarded jail cell and risk the possibility that, like Lee Harvey Oswald, Sirhan might himself fall victim to an assassin before coming to trial.

The grand jury hearing may shed some light on growing speculation that the man who shot Kennedy may not have gone to the Ambassador Hotel election party alone.

WOMAN SOUGHT

An all-points bulletin was in effect for a young woman in a polka dot dress who ran from the primary victory celebration shortly after Sen. Kennedy was killed.

"We shot him," a campaign worker said the woman told her.

"Prior to the shooting," according to the police report, "suspect (Sirhan) was observed with a female Caucasian described as 23 to 27 years, 5 feet 6 inches tall, wearing a white voile dress with three-quarter sleeves and with small black polka dots."

The woman wore dark shoes and "bouffant type hair."

"We don't think it was a conspiracy at this time," a police investigator said, "but we are not going to throw anything into the wastebasket."

Altho the grand jury proceedings are officially secret, it was learned the DA's office planned to call 17 witnesses, including Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh, Sen. Kennedy's California campaign manager, and Olympic champion Rafer Johnson and football player Roosevelt Grier, the two men who disarmed and immobilized the suspect.

No members of Sen. Kennedy's immediate family were scheduled to appear.

Mr. Younger said the evidence should be presented by tonight, but he said it "might be a long day."

TRIAL IN 60 DAYS

After arraignment, Sirhan has 10 days in which to file a plea. California law requires the DA's office to bring the defendant to trial within 60 days of his pleading, but the defense frequently wins delays.

Sirhan, a few hours after the shooting, was arraigned on six counts of assault with the intent to commit murder and bail was set at $250,000. But the Senator's death automatically made it a capital case, which is not bailable.

Strict precautions were taken to make certain that Sirhan's right to a fair trial would not be prejudiced by any misstep by the police or prosecutors. He was repeatedly warned that he was not required to make a statement, and that if he did make a statement voluntarily, it would be used in evidence against him. Whether due to the warnings or to a desire to protect other possible conspirators, Sirhan remained silent regarding the case, altho he is reported to have talked freely on other subjects.

MAYOR YORTY

The ironclad, multiple-eyewitnessed case against the Jordanian gunman might have become a model of restraint on the part of police, district attorney and news media if it had not been for mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles, one of the nation's most voluble politicians.

Mr. Yorty, a man for whom TV cameras exercise a deadly fascination, appeared twice in press conferences after the shooting, and both times disclosed information that legal purists might hold transgressed the newly defined rights of accused criminals. Mr. Yorty's indiscretions, if that is what they were, hinged on the disclosure of some of the contents of a journal Sirhan had kept. Mr. Yorty also extrapolated the conclusion that Sirhan had been subject to communist influence because a car to which the suspect had access had been seen parked in front of a place where the communist-front W.E.B. DuBois club held meetings. Subsequently, Mr. Yorty admitted that he did not know whether Sirhan was using the car or not at the time, but insisted that contents of the man's notebook showed unmistakable communist influence.

The Attorney General of California rebuked Mr. Yorty for his comments on the case, and the California American Civil Liberties Union while applauding DA Younger and Police Chief Tom Reddin for their handling of the case — pointedly omitted Mr. Yorty from its praise.

In spite of what many Californians regard as the typical Yortyisms, however, the case against Sirhan seemed to be unshakable. Perhaps as many as a dozen eyewitnesses watched his rampage of murder and assault. His own writing (if it is admitted against him) shows he was determined to kill Sen. Kennedy, and the murder weapon was forcibly taken from his hand after the shooting. One of the bullets that struck Sen. Kennedy remained intact and was removed at the autopsy. It will undoubtedly be compared to test shots fired from Sirhan's .22, and thus will forge another link in the chain of evidence that may send him to California's gas chamber.

Sirhan Asks 'Big Name' Lawyer

LOS ANGELES, June 10 (UPD) — Sirhan Bishara Sirhan has asked the American Civil Liberties Union to help find a "big name" lawyer to defend him against the charge of assassinating Robert F. Kennedy.

A. L. Wirin, noted constitutional lawyer and chief counsel of the Southern California ACLU, has been visiting Sirhan daily in his cell and planned to do so today.

This week Mr. Wirin will ask presiding judge Richard Schauer of Los Angeles Superior Court to call on the Los Angeles Bar Association and other legal groups to obtain a defense attorney.

Superior Judge Arthur Alarcon rejected Mr. Wirin's motion at the arraignment for "one or more outstanding lawyers" to be appointed to defend Sirhan but indicated he would reconsider the request at a later time.

DELAYS PLEA

Sirhan presently is represented by Wilbur J. Littlefield, chief deputy trial lawyer in the public defender's office. At his request, entering of a plea of guilt or innocence was continued until June 28.

Sirhan has indicated to Mr. Wirin he would prefer to be defended by a private lawyer, altho he is not opposed to Mr. Littlefield in particular. Mr. Wirin hopes that a lawyer of the caliber of Melvin Belli, who defended Jack Ruby in Dallas, would be sought by the court.

HEAVY GUARD

Meanwhile, Sirhan remained under heavy guard in the second floor hospital ward of Central Jail. Newspapers are distributed in the ward and deputies said Sirhan probably had seen photographs of the funeral of the man he is accused of killing June 5.

While legal efforts continued to find a defense attorney for the suspect, police and prosecution attorneys were busy seeking answers to several questions, including whether the slaying was the result of a lone assassin or of a conspiracy.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : SAC, WFO (173-135)

FROM : SA ALFRED K. NICHOLAS, JR.

SUBJECT: KENSALT

DATE: 6/12/68

On 6/10/68, WF 1573-S (protect identity, reliable in past) furnished the following information:

Some good friends of informant and spouse, THOMAS and THELMA KOUZES, 3524 Barkley Drive, Fairfax, Virginia, have had in the past several years foreign students living with them while they attended local colleges. One of these is HAMID ARWODI who is from Kuwait. ARWODI lived with the KOUZES family for about three years and left in about December, 1967.

Informant related that on Thanksgiving Day, ¹⁹⁶⁷ he and his family had dinner with the KOUZES family at the latter's residence. During the day ARWODI, accompanied by a number of other Arab students, spent some time with the dinner guests and entered into political discussions. ARWODI and others indicated deep hatred of Israel and expressed anti-U. S. sentiments because of our support of Israel. They also indicated they were opposed to ROBERT KENNEDY especially because he had backed Israel. Informant stated ARWODI and the other students at no time made any threatening statements in regard to KENNEDY but the comment was made that they hoped he would not be President.

Informant said ARWODI is a student at American University and apparently has his own apartment in Washington, D. C., is the head of an Arab student organization at American University. Informant has not seen him since the above incident. In addition, informant does not know the names of any of the other Arab students he met on Thanksgiving Day.

According to the informant, he realizes the above information is nonspecific and that these students did not make threatening statements but he felt it advisable to inform the FBI in view of the assassination of Senator KENNEDY.

On 6/13/68, EARL CLANDIA MURPHY, 5932 3rd Street, N.W., WDC, advised that a few days before the assassination of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, he attended a rally for Senator KENNEDY at 14th and Park Road, N.W., WDC.

He stated a white male approximately 35-40 years of age, 5'6", 200 pounds, of stocky build, wearing a dark top coat and hat stood next to him as the Senator was speaking. He said this man held up a round object gray in color, approximately 2' long and 3" in diameter with an electric cord extending from it.

MURPHY said he asked the man what the object was and the man replied it was a microphone. MURPHY said this man then moved around the outer circle of the crowd and moved in toward Senator KENNEDY. MURPHY said he followed the man a short distance, the man moving in a fairly rapid fashion; however, the man disappeared in the large crowd. MURPHY stated it was possible this man was a technician from the press and moved into a better position. He said he could not describe this individual further as the light was poor; Senator KENNEDY was then speaking at a late evening hour. MURPHY said he doubted whether he could recognize this man if he should see him again due to the limited amount of light at the time.

MURPHY stated this man appeared to be alone and MURPHY stated he could furnish no additional information. He indicated he furnished this information as it might have had some connection to the shooting of Senator KENNEDY at Los Angeles.

Mr. MURPHY's interest and cooperation in this matter were acknowledged. WFO conducting no further investigation at this time.

Sirhan wants 'big name' attorney to defend him

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Sirhan Bishara Sirhan has asked the American Civil Liberties Union to help find a "big name" lawyer to defend him against the charge of assassinating Robert F. Kennedy.

A. L. Wirin, noted constitutional lawyer and chief counsel of the Southern California ACLU, has been visiting Sirhan daily in his cell.

This week Wirin will ask presiding Judge Richard Schauer of Los Angeles Superior Court to call on the Los Angeles Bar Association and other legal groups to obtain a defense attorney.

Superior Judge Arthur Alarcon rejected Wirin's motion at the arraignment for "one or more outstanding lawyers" to be appointed to defend Sirhan but indicated he would reconsider the request at a later time.

WIRIN EMPHASIZES that the ACLU has not undertaken the defense of Sirhan and has commended the courts and prosecution for vigorously protecting the defendant's rights, rare praise from the ACLU.

Sirhan presently is represented by Wilbur F. Littlefield, chief deputy trial lawyer in the public defender's office. At his request entering of a plea of guilty or innocence was continued until June 28.

Sirhan has indicated to Wirin he would prefer to be defended by a private lawyer, although he is not opposed to Littlefield in particular. Wirin hopes that a lawyer of the caliber of Melvin Belli, who defended Jack Ruby in Dallas, would be sought by the court.

Sirhan Threatened

LOS ANGELES, June 11 (UPI) — A total of 49 threats against the life of Sirhan B. Sirhan were received during the past five days and jailers today maintained strict security around the accused assassin of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The phoned threats hit a peak of 29 Saturday, the day after the suspect was arraigned.

The Sheriff's Department, heeding a court-ordered news blackout on pretrial statements, refused to confirm or deny the threats but other sources said the calls included many demanding authorities "turn him over to us."

'Gun Merchants' Plotted RFK Life

PARIS June 11 (UPI) — North Vietnamese diplomats charged today that "gun merchants" with financial interests in the Vietnam war may have conspired in "a plot" to eliminate Sen. Robert F. Kennedy because he was a peace candidate.

The communist envoys admitted to newsmen they had no proof for their assertions.

The Hanoi diplomats engaged in preliminary talks with the United States have refused public comment on the assassination, contending it was an "internal American matter." But in private they admitted shock.

"The United States has been exporting violence for years," a high-ranking North Vietnamese delegate said. "Now it is reaping violence at home which has boomeranged."

North Vietnamese sources indicated their delegation would make no concessions in forthcoming meetings with W. Averell Harriman, President Johnson's special ambassador. They said their instructions were the same as at the first meeting May 13 — Demand an immediate and unconditional halt of U. S. bombing.

The North Vietnamese sources said they would refuse any concessions to start substantive bargaining even if President Johnson ordered a temporary halt to the bombing. The next negotiations session was scheduled tomorrow.

SUBJECT: KENSALT

DATE: 6/13/68

During the evening of 6/13/68 an individual who identified himself as MICHAEL H. SULLIVAN, 3636 16th St., N.W., Apt. B-412, telephone 332-5817, telephoned WFO and advised as follows:

He believes he may have seen SIRHAN SIRHAN, the accused assassin of Senator KENNEDY, three or three and one-half years ago at the Sheraton Park Hotel, WDC. SULLIVAN said he recalls an incident wherein a waiter with an explosive personality then working at the hotel ~~XXXX~~ became involved in an altercation with another waiter. At the time SULLIVAN was working as a security officer at the hotel.

SULLIVAN stated it is his opinion the waiter with the explosive personality may have been SIRHAN. He did not know the waiter's name, but recalls he was a "rag head," which he explained is an individual from one of the near eastern countries.

III

It was noted during his call that SULLIVAN's conversation was rambling and occasionally incoherent. When he was asked to repeat facts he had already furnished, he gave different details. It was obvious that he had no specific information to indicate the individual he allegedly saw was SIRHAN SIRHAN.

WFO file 105-81551, captioned MICHAEL HARRY SULLIVAN, IS - R, appears ident with above-captioned complainant. A copy of a LHM setting out background info re SULLIVAN is attached to this memo. WFO file 62-0-21894 concerns a MICHAEL A. SULLIVAN, 3636 16th St., N.W., WDC, who called WFO to complain that someone broke into the apartment of his sister in Monterey, Calif. SULLIVAN claimed the burglar was a narcotics agent, and he wanted FBI assistance in obtaining evidence against him.

In view of the nonspecific nature of the information furnished by SULLIVAN it is recommended no further action be taken at this time.

MICHAEL HARRY SULLIVAN
INTERNAL SECURITY - R

In late January, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned that Michael Sullivan had been in contact with Viktor S. Evlanov of the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C. (WFO). Source described Sullivan as a cook in the Merchant Marine, age 50, residing 3633 - 16th Street, N. W., WDC.

According to source, Sullivan contacted Evlanov to make his views known concerning the seizure of the "USS Pueblo" off the coast of Korea. Sullivan indicated that he felt the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) was not completely to blame for this incident and expounded on the need for peace in the world. Evlanov assured Sullivan that the USSR had nothing to do with the "USS Pueblo" affair.

The current "Diplomatic List," published by the United States Department of State, identifies Viktor S. Evlanov as a Second Secretary, Embassy of the USSR, WFO.

On January 25, 1968, Miss Arlene Butler, Rental Office, Woodner Hotel, 3633 - 16th Street, N. W., WDC, made available the following information from a rental application completed in April 1966:

She said Michael H. Sullivan occupied Apartment B209 with his wife Florence on June 1, 1966, and they continue to reside in the apartment. His age in April, 1966 was listed as 49. Prior to occupying Apartment B209, Sullivan indicated he resided for four years at 2881 Cathedral Avenue, N. W., WDC. He listed his nearest relative as James H. Sullivan, residence Lafayette Hotel, 16th and I Streets, N. W., WDC.

Miss Butler stated that Sullivan was employed at the Woodner Hotel as a steward prior to residing at the hotel.

On January 25, 1963, Miss Sarsfield, Bagmaster and Bookkeeper, Woodner Hotel, advised from her records that ~~Michael A. Sullivan~~ was employed by the Woodner Hotel as a steward from April 14, 1936 to June 20, 1938. She said his job involved ordering food supplies and liquor and disbursing these items to the various departments. He also managed the coffee shop for a short period. She said he was laid off due to the dining room closing during the summer months.

Miss Sarsfield said her record reveals that Sullivan was previously employed at the National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Maryland, as a barman for an 18-month period. She was unable to state where Sullivan is currently employed.

On January 26, 1963, files of The Credit Bureau, Incorporated, WDC, were reviewed and found to contain the following information concerning Michael Sullivan:

Michael A. Sullivan, wife's name Florence C., is reported to have resided at 2221 Cathedral Avenue, N. W., in July, 1961. He is divorced from Helen Sullivan and his age in 1961 was listed as approximately 42. Employment is listed as bartender, Touchdown Club, 1414 I Street, N. W. Previous employments are listed with Goldie Aherns Charcoal Pit as a cook and baker, and prior to this with the Arva Hotel.

Credit file indicates five suits were filed against Sullivan between 1933-1966, totaling $14,000.00, ranging from $12.00 to $350.00. In July, 1964, one account, in the amount of $73.00, was written off to profit and loss.

On January 26, 1963, the following information was obtained from the files of the Records and Welfare Branch, Merchant Vessel Personnel Division, Headquarters, United States Coast Guard, WDC:

Michael Harry Sullivan, born March 21, 1917, at Richmond, California, was issued United States Merchant Marine Document Number 2233009 on December 22, 1944, as a second cook and baker. His address at that time was listed as 1516 1/2
Malibu Avenue, Los Angeles, California, and his wife's name as Mary Sullivan. He indicated his Social Security Number as

On 6/12/68 the following information was received through Bureau Liaison from Mr. Floyd M. Baring a retired Secret Service Agent who has been employed by the Kennedy for President Committee.

Emma Christopher, who was a volunteer worker at the Kennedy Campaign Headquarters in Washington for a time, has reported that she knew one Suleman A. Khattab, an Arab, who worked as a volunteer for a few days at Kennedy Headquarters. She has indicated this individual "acted suspicious" during the time he was there. Baring said she had mentioned this to her present employer, Robert Wald, a Washington attorney, who in turn informed the Kennedy Headquarters officials.

BARBARA D

Baring stated their records on Khattab indicate he was a language instructor at the Institute of Modern Language, 1616 Connecticut Avenue, Northwest, with an additional address of 2020 F Street, Northwest, telephone number 659-1646. Baring stated Miss Christopher can be reached at telephone number 363-3013. He did not have an address for her and stated he has no further information on this matter.

THREAT TO ASSASSINATE SENATOR
EDWARD KENNEDY, SAN FRANCISCO,
CALIFORNIA, JUNE 10, 1968

On June 10, 1968, LEROY OSBORNE, Day Clerk, George Hotel, 906 Howard Street, San Francisco, California, telephoned the FBI office to advise that a note was found in the outgoing mail box at the hotel signed by IGNACIO O. LOPEZ, Room 302, which was addressed "Mailman, give this to a police, please." The contents of the note read as follows:

"There are people wandering around the place where I live shouting out they are going to do the same thing to Ted Kennedy. They speak in Spanish and sometimes in English but generally in Spanish. I live at George Hotel, Howard and 5th. I only want to be in peace with myself if something will happen.

(Sgd.) Ignacio O. Lopez".

LOPEZ was not available for interview this date, nor could anyone be located who knew where he was employed or could be reached.

OSBORNE made available the note, which was given to Special Agent LARRY NEWMAN, U. S. Secret Service, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, at the time this information was furnished orally to him. on June 10, 1968, at 2:30 P.M.

OSBORNE stated his records show that LOPEZ had registered at the hotel on May 9, 1968, and listed his home as Miami, Florida. He said that LOPEZ had lived at the hotel since that time and did not appear to be an itinerant type of person as he had received letters from A. H. GARCIA, 2134 N. Kedzie, Chicago, Illinois, and A. ORDETY, 10916 - 28th, Tampa, Florida, among others.

OSBORNE was unable to identify who the Spanish-speaking persons referred to in the note might be as many of the residents of the hotel, as well as the general area, speak Spanish.

This information was also furnished to BEN LASHKOFF, Intelligence Unit of the San Francisco Police Department, on 6/10/68 at 3 PM.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.
